

EUROPEAN FEDERATION OF PARASITOLOGISTS

Founded in 1966 by representatives of 13 parasitological societies from eastern and western European countries

Objectives:

To promote knowledge on parasites and parasitic diseases

To support research and networks in basic, veterinary and medical parasitology

To attract young scientists and students to parasitology

To support the activities of the World Federation of Parasitologists

To organize a European Multicolloquium of Parasitology (EMOP) every four years, alternating with ICOPA

Members:

European parasitological societies

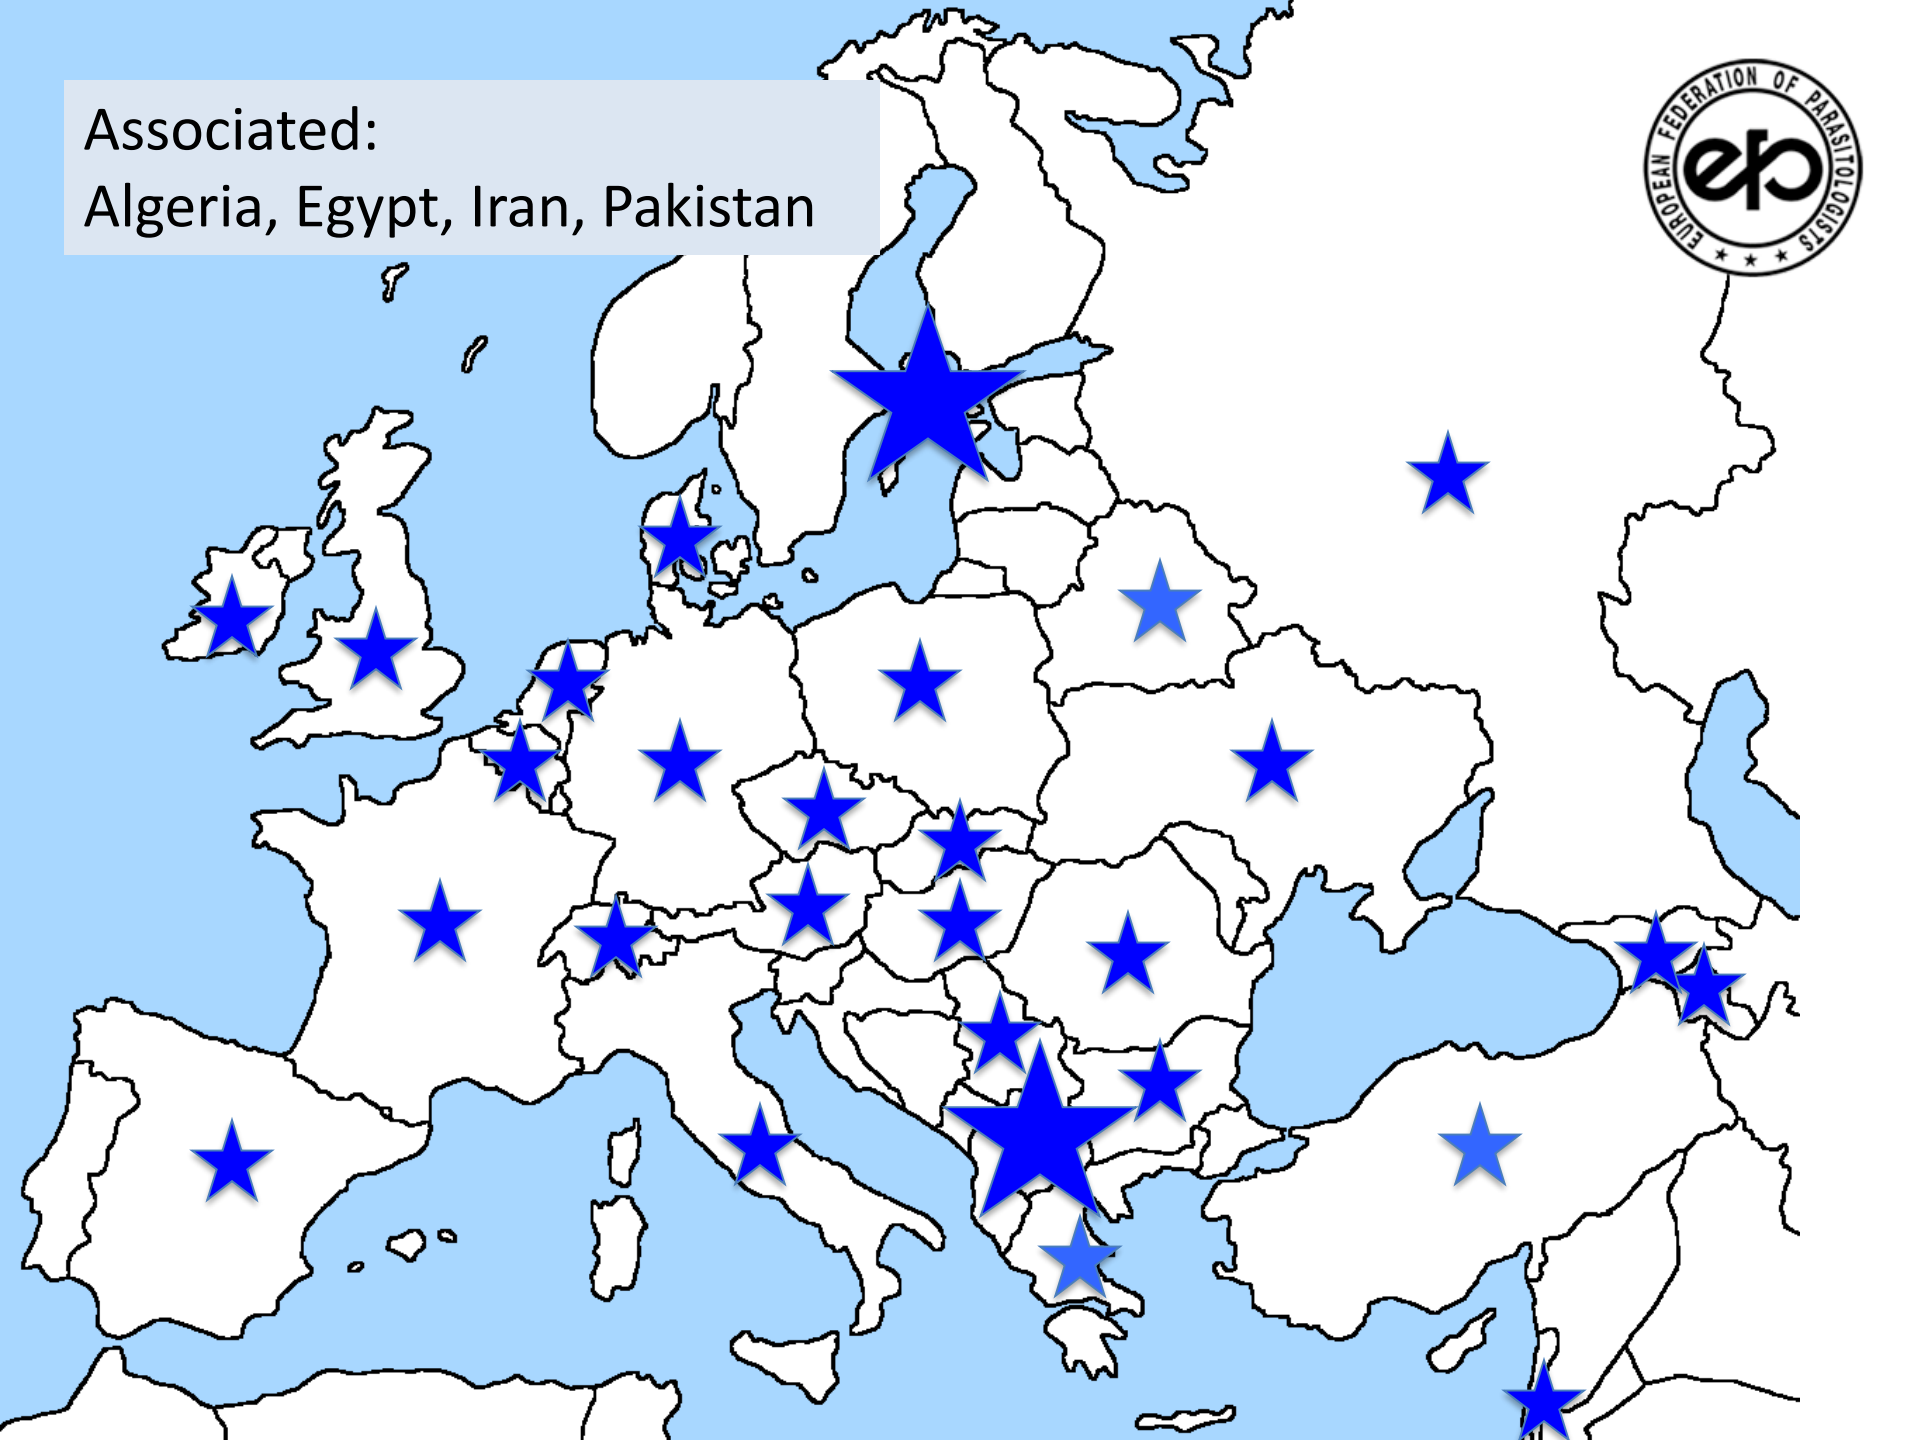

Membership fees: 0.5 € per year per society member

Benefits:

Young scientist awards, student travel grants to EMOP's

Newsletter

Associated:
Algeria, Egypt, Iran, Pakistan

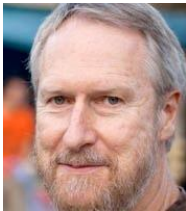

Board:

General Secretary
Olgica Djurkovic, Serbia

Treasurer
Laura Rinaldi, Italy

President
Thomas Romig, Germany

1st Vice President
Vasile Cozma, Romania

2st Vice President
Antti Oksanen, Finland

Titia Kortbeek
Netherlands

Isabelle Villena
France

Bonnie Webster
UK

Pierre Dorny
Belgium

European Multicolloquium of Parasitology (EMOP)

Held every four years:

EMOP 1 - Rennes, France. 1-4 September 1971

EMOP 2 - Trogry, Yugoslavia. 1-6 September 1975

EMOP 3 - Cambridge, UK. 7-13 September 1980

EMOP 4 - Izmir, Turkey. 14-19 October 1984

EMOP 5 - Budapest, Hungary. 4-9 September 1988

EMOP 6 - The Hague, The Netherlands. 7-11 September 1992

EMOP 7 - Parma, Italy. 2-6 September 1996

EMOP 8 - Poznan, Poland. 10-14 September 2000

EMOP 9 - Valencia, Spain. 18-23 July 2004

EMOP 10 - Paris, France. 24-28 August 2008

EMOP 11 - Cluj-Napoca, Romania, 25-29 July 2012

EMOP 12 - Turku, Finland, 20-24 July 2016

Young Scientist Award (presented at EMOP)

Prize of 400 € and waiving of congress fees

2016 awards at EMOP 12

Anna Gonchar (Russia) for her work on Notocotylidae (Digenea)

Jelena Srbljanovic (Serbia) for her work on Toxoplasma

2012 awards at EMOP 11

Angela de Cesare (Italy) for her work on Capillaria aerophila

Pikka Jokelainen (Finland) for her work on Toxoplasma

Julien Portier (France) for his work on Alaria alata

Marija Vujanic (Serbia) for her work on Toxoplasma

Jeremy Bouyer (France) for his work on tsetse flies

Caroline Chilinsky (UK) for her work on Haemonchus contortus

Student Scholarships

Coverage of EMOP congress fees

- web pages: <http://www.eurofedpar.eu/>

EUROPEAN FEDERATION OF PARASITOLOGISTS

Search this site

Navigation

HomeBoardMembersBy LawsEMOPs[EFP awards &
scholarships](#)HistoryNewsEuropean Journals of ParasitologyLinks

EUROPEAN FEDERATION OF PARASITOLOGISTS

The main objectives of the European Federation of Parasitologists are to promote the exchange of knowledge on parasitic organisms and diseases

to coordinate researches and networks related to parasitic organisms

to support basic, veterinary & medical Parasitology

to attract young scientists and students to develop researches in Parasitology to organize a European Multicolloquium of Parasitology (EMOP) every 4 years

EFP NEWS letter

Click here for the last issue \(March 2016\)

EFP Fees

Each society have to pay a 0.5 € fee for each of its active members per year. The funds should be sent to the Banca Nazionale del Lavoro, Rome, Italy (see details here).

Most of the EFP funds are used to grant students to attend the EMOPs and to award Young Scientists every 4 years (see details).

EFP's public ID number in the European Union Transparency Register is: 728881117653-25

See EFP Wiki Wikipedia article

updated JDC November 2016

13th European Multicolloquium
of Parasitology

Belgrade, Serbia
25th – 29th August
2020

SAVE THE DATE!

CHANGING CLIMATE
CHANGING PARASITES

EMOP
2020

